Sequoyah Affinity Group Picnics

Affinity groups help create an environment in which people with shared backgrounds come together to build community and fellowship. Affinity group picnics hosted by Sequoyah are open to students and families enrolled in Pasadena area independent school grades K-12.

Affinity groups offer affirmation of identity, empowerment of the individual, and empowerment of the group within the learning community.

“Identity, Affinity, Reality.” – NAIS

Spring 2019 Picnics:

Latino Students and Families

African American & African-descent Students and Families

LGBTQ Students and Families

Families with Adopted Children
